

Good Night, Sweet Prince

Professor

Herman E. "Pete" Bateman

"Pete was a gentleman and a gentle man". Leonard Dinnerstein, colleague

"He was always seeking to do the right thing. He touched people's lives." Richard Cosgrove, colleague

"One of the warmest, gentlest, kindest men I've ever had the privilege of knowing." Robert Cutts, friend

"The memory of Pete's warmth, as a colleague, teacher, and friend, remain one of the most vivid and happy recollections of starting off my professional life at the University." Michael Schaller, colleague

"When I was in prison during the Vietnam War because I refused to fight, many of my professors expressed sympathy. But Professor Bateman actually wrote to me in prison- he was one of the few. I will never forget his kindness or Oscar Martinez has been selected for induction into Authors of the Pass, an El Paso sympathy. Philip Supina, '64

"Thoroughly a gentleman in the best sense of the word, Pete Bateman left a legacy of humor, intelligence, and an enjoyment of nature to all those who knew him. And those memories will keep him present with us always." Donna Guy, colleague

"He encouraged us to explore. He was a model of patience, humility, intelligence, and kindness". Patrick Justison, grandson

"I was privileged to be his friend. He was sensitive, intelligent and had great integrity. He was a great teacher. His legacy is his inspiration to his students." Robert Browder, colleague and former Department Head

"Professor Bateman was my history professor and my sister's as well. He was a wonderful man and a great teacher. I cannot be at the memorial today and my sister is traveling in Europe but know that she area "Authors Hall of Fame." Authors are inducted into the Hall of Fame in recognition of

and I, at 4 pm, will be thinking of Professor Bateman and how the world is a better place because of him." George Booth, MA '62

On October 24, 1997, a memorial service was held for Professor Herman E. "Pete" Bateman who passed away on May 23, 1997. Pete Bateman taught in the Department of History for over 30 years and retired in 1981. Several colleagues, friends, family members and former students shared memories and the impact this "prince of a man" had on their lives. He was considered one of the great lions of the department whose teaching and example continues to inspire his colleagues and former students.

Good night, sweet prince, and may you rest in peace.

Awards & Recognition

publications spanning an entire career that appeal to the general public as well as to specialized audiences and have a strong connection to the El Paso region.

Douglas Weiner was granted a subvention award by the Provost's Author Support Fund that will help defray expenses associated with his book manuscript A Little Corner of Freedom: Russian Nature Protection from Stalin to Gorbachev.

Christine Seger received a Graduate and Professional Student Travel Grant to present some of the findings of her dissertation at the International Symposium on Mining, in Fairbanks, Alaska.

Conferences

Julia Clancy-Smith gave the opening plenary address at the Annual International World History Conference, held in Pamplona, Spain in June 1997. She was also the discussant on a panel devoted to women, gender, and imperialism at the 22nd Annual Conference of the Social Science History Association, held in October 1997. In December, Professor Clancy-Smith gave a paper at an international conference in Copenhagen, sponsored by the Department of Anthropology of the University of Aarhus.

Richard Cosgrove presented a paper entitled 'Sir Thomas

Matthew Goldish was given an award by the Provost's Author Support Fund to help defray expenses associated with his forthcoming book, Judaism in the Theology of Sir Isaac Newton.

Julia Clancy-Smith has been invited to serve on the Publications Committee of the American Historical Association.

Erskine Holland and the Transformation of English Analytic Jurisprudence' at the 13th Biennial Conference on the British Legal System at Trinity Hall, Cambridge in July 1997.

Katherine Morrissey presented her paper, "Mining Pollution Cases: Arguments and Evidence for the 'Public Good'" at the Third Joint Annual Meeting of the American Studies Association in Washington, D.C., in November.

New Graduate Students

It has been a pleasure getting to know our thirteen new graduate students who joined us this fall. We look forward to working with them in the future.

EARLY EUROPE

Victoria Speder MA
Scott Taylor PhD

Roger Nichols will join the editorial board of The Journal of American Ethnic History for a three-year term (1997-2000). Professor Nichols has also been appointed to the William T. Jackson Prize Committee of the Pacific Coast Branch-American Historical Association for 1997-2000.

LATIN AMERICA

Joy Jackson MA
Samuel Sedgwick MA
Ligia Vigo MA

MODERN EUROPE

Marti Lybeck MA
Rodney Martensen MA

UNITED STATES

Kay Douglas MA
Albert McCarn PhD
John Shaw MA
James Turner MA
Brent Yazzie MA

Publications

Linda T. Darling's article, 'Ottoman Fiscal Administration: Decline or Adaptation?' has been published in the Spring 1997 issue of The Journal of European Economic History.

Julia Clancy-Smith's first monograph, Rebel and Saint: Muslim Notables, Populist Protest, Colonial Encounters (Algeria and Tunisia, 1800-1904) has been published this fall in a paperback edition of the University of California Press.

Richard Eaton's prizewinning book, The Rise of Islam and the Bengal Frontier, 1206-1760, has been published in an Indian edition in New Delhi, Oxford University Press, 1997. Professor Eaton also published an article entitled 'Comparative History as World History: Religious Conversion in Modern India,' in the Journal of World History, 8/2 (1997).

Frederick Kellogg published two articles in Southeastern Europe/L'Europe du Sud-Est, vol.16, 1997: 'A Quest to Understand Nationalism,' and 'An Appreciation of the Life and Historical Works of David Prodan.'

Derrick E. Leasure published 'From 'Wasteland' to

While a Fulbright Scholar at Halle University during spring and summer 1997, Roger Nichols presented lectures and papers in Dresden, Wittenberg, Tuebingen, Cologne, and Osnabrueck in Germany as well as the University of Tampere in Finland.

Good News

As part of the Sonoran Archive Project, Oscar Martinez participates in an extensive research venture that

'Paradise': Sylvester Mowry and Frontier Development,' in the Journal of the West, 36 (1997).

Oscar Martinez has published a chapter 'Conflict and Accommodation along the U.S.-Mexico Border, 1848-1911,' in Myths, Misdeeds, and Misunderstandings: The Roots of Conflict in United States-Mexico Relations, edited by Jaime E. Rodriguez and Kathryn Vincent, Scholarly Resources Press, 1997.

Katherine Morrissey has published her latest book, Mental Territories: Mapping the Inland Empire. The book was published by Cornell University Press.

George Rising published an article, 'An Epic Campaign: Upton Sinclair's 1934 California Gubernatorial Campaign,' in Southern California Quarterly, microfilms millions of documents from the official archives of Sonora, some of which date back to 1610. The December 3rd issue of the Arizona Daily Star explored this exciting project. The article was written by a former history Honors student, Raina Wagner.

An article in the December 15 issue of the Arizona Daily Star spotlighted the efforts of alumnus Robert MacArthur Ph.D. '82. Robert is a professor in the College of Agriculture and coordinator of the 79/1 (1997).

Presentations

Leonard Dinnerstein presented a talk on "American Jews and the Survivors of the Holocaust," for the members of Sinai Temple at the start of their celebration of the Jewish High Holy Days on Saturday, September 27.

In addition to his recent publications, Richard Eaton presented two invited papers: 'Temple Desecration and the Formation of the Indo-Muslim States,' at the University of Michigan in October, and 'The Rise of Deccani Cultures, 1300-1400,' at the University of Pennsylvania in November.

Southwest Project. His utilization of the internet in his classes allows him to involve his students in real world issues and puts him in the forefront of the classroom information revolution.

The Associated Students Senate unanimously voted Andrew Hayden ASUA federal relations director. The job involves promoting student issues on a national scale by working with U.S. government officials.

Democrat Jerry Anderson captured the Ward 3 council seat on Tucson's City Council, defeating three fellow party members. Jerry received his bachelor's degree in history from the University of Arizona, and his master's degree from Arizona State University.

Homecoming 1997

RECEPTION

Helen Nader hosted the fourth Annual History Alumni and History Lovers reception on Friday, November 7, 1997 at the Westward Look Resort. Jack Marietta gave a special presentation 'Portals to the Past: Crime in America Then and Now.' Jack's presentation earned rave reviews from the attendees.

TENT ON THE MALL

As part of the Homecoming celebration, the Department of History sponsored the annual Homecoming tent and booksale on the mall on Saturday, November 8, 1997. It was a big success and several hundred dollars were raised to support student activities. Thanks to all who supported the department for Homecoming.

History Film Series

The Department of History and the Extended University are sponsoring the Third Annual History Film series for the Southern Arizona community, starting Sunday, February 8, 1998 at St. Philip's Church at 2pm.

SCHEDULE

2/8	A Man for all Cosgrove	R.
	Seasons
2/15	Europa Europa Crane	S.
2/22	Ben Hur	A. Futrell
3/1	The Crucible Marietta	J.
3/8	My Darling Morrissey	K.
	Clementine
3/15	Close to Eden Weiner	D.

Thank you to Pink Motel Video Store for sponsoring the videos for the series.

BordersBenefit Day

As part of the Department of History's Centennial Celebration, Borders Bookstore hosted a Borders Benefit Day on November 15. Susan Crane presented the lecture 'Recollecting the Past in German Museums' to an appreciative audience. Almost three hundred dollars were raised for student scholarships. A BIG thank you to all who supported the department on this day.

Salon Series

A salon series will be held throughout the spring at Barnes & Noble. The bookstore will also sponsor weekly radio spots, 'Moments in History,' which will air on KSAZ580.

In March, Borders Books and Music is sponsoring a weekly salon series in celebration of the department's centennial. On March 7, Julia Clancy-Smith will kick off the series with her lecture, 'Coffee and Coffee Houses in World History: The Origins of a Social Beverage.'

Who Did It?

On December 4, Richard Cosgrove solved the mystery, 'Who Killed the Princes in the Tower?', as part of the first 'Who Did It' Dinner at AZ STIXX restaurant. Richard's lecture was sponsored by Clues Unlimited Mystery Bookstore and received an overwhelming response. Over $500 were raised for student scholarships. A special thank you goes to the owners of Clues Unlimited, Charlene Taylor, Patricia Davis, and Christine Burke, for their support of education and the Department of History. Keep an eye out for the next "Who Did It?" Dinner scheduled for this spring!

Happy Holidays to All!

HAPPY HOLIDAYS and HAPPY NEW YEAR!