

KATIE M. HEMPHILL, PhD

University of Arizona
Department of History
Chavez 403D
1110 James E. Rogers Way
Tucson, AZ 85721
khemphill@email.arizona.edu

CURRENT POSITION

Assistant Professor of History, University of Arizona (Fall, 2014-Present)

EDUCATION

Ph.D., History, Johns Hopkins University, 2014

Dissertation: "Bawdy City: Commercial Sex, Capitalism, and Regulation in Nineteenth-Century Baltimore"

Advisors: Mary P. Ryan and Michael P. Johnson

M.A., History, Johns Hopkins University, 2010

M.A., History, George Mason University, 2008

B.A., History and English, summa cum laude, George Mason University, 2006

BOOK MANUSCRIPT

Bawdy City: Commercial Sex and Regulation in Baltimore, 1790-1915 (submitted to Cambridge University Press, revised and under review)

PUBLICATIONS

Articles

"Selling Sex in the City: Prostitution in Nineteenth-Century Baltimore." in Capitalism by Gaslight: Illuminating the Economy of Nineteenth-Century America, eds. Wendy Woloson and Brian Luskey, (Philadelphia: University of Pennsylvania Press, 2015).

"Driven to the Commission of This Crime': Women and Infanticide in Baltimore, 1835-1860." Journal of the Early Republic 32, No. 3 (2012).

Book Forums

"Prostitution, Venereal Disease, and Enduring Anxieties," Journal of Women's History (Winter, 2017).

Reviews

Book Review of Stephanie Bower's Kentucky Countryside in Transition: A Streetcar Suburb and the Origins of Middle-Class Louisville, 1850-1910," Journal of Southern History 83, no. 2 (2017)

"The Early American Crime Blog," Digital History Review, Journal of American History (June, 2015).

"Sex, Patriarchy, and the Liberal State." Review of Taming Passion for the Public Good: Policing Sex in the Early Republic, by Mark Kann. Common-Place (Fall, 2013).

ARTICLES IN PROGRESS

"'Sundry Marks in India Ink': Tattooing and Maryland Penitentiary Inmates, 1811-1857" (article submitted for consideration and under recommended revision)

“‘A Serious Indiscretion’: Queer Scandal and Moral Reform in Progressive Baltimore”
(article in progress)

CONFERENCES AND SCHOLARLY PRESENTATIONS

Invited Seminars and Talks

“The Early Women’s Movement,” The Study of the U.S. Institute (SUSI), January, 2019 and July, 2018.

“Shifting Landscapes: Race, Capitalism, and Sex Work in 19th-Century Baltimore,” Department of Women and Gender Studies, Johns Hopkins University, March 9, 2016.

“‘Sundry Marks in India Ink’: Tattooing in the Records of the Maryland Penitentiary,” The Seminar, Johns Hopkins University, March 2, 2015.

“‘Sundry Marks in India Ink’: Tattooing in the Records of the Maryland Penitentiary,” McNeil Center for Early American Studies Seminar, January 30, 2015.

“Margaret Hamilton's Baltimore: Capitalism, Prostitution, and Regulation in the City,” University of Oklahoma, March, 2014.

Conference and Seminar Presentations

Chair and Commenter, “Negotiating Gender and Sexuality from the Victorian Era through the Early Twentieth Century,” Pacific Coast Branch of the American Historical Association Annual Meeting, August, 2017.

“Madams, Property Investment, and Hedging the Risk of Sex Work in Antebellum America,” Society for Historians of the Early American Republic Annual Meeting, July, 2017.

Chair and Commenter, “Queer Adventures: National Identity and Belonging in 19th c. American Literature,” American Studies Association Annual Meeting, November, 2016

“‘Our Patriotic Friends’: Women and Prostitution in Civil War Baltimore,” Society for Civil War Historians Meeting, June, 2016.

“Sexuality, Gender, and the Future of Labor History,” LACWA Roundtable, Organization of American Historians Annual Meeting, April, 2016.

“‘Sundry Marks in India Ink’: Tattooing and Maryland Penitentiary Inmates, 1811-1857,” C19: The Society For Nineteenth-Century Americanists Annual Meeting, March, 2016.

“‘Where the Most Fearful Maladies Can Be Cured Without Fail’: Baltimore’s Venereal Medical Marketplace, 1790-1860,” Front Range Early Americanist Colloquium, October, 2014.

“Selling Sex in the City: Prostitution in Nineteenth-Century Baltimore.” Capitalism by Gaslight Symposium, Library Company of Philadelphia, June, 2012

“‘Driven to the Commission of This Crime’: Women and Infanticide in Baltimore, 1835-1860.” Society for Historians of the Early American Republic, July, 2010

“‘This Revolting Circumstance Seems to Call Upon Me’: The Debate over Infanticide in Baltimore City, 1835-1860.” American Seminar, Johns Hopkins University, April, 2009.

“‘Take You to the Cage, Sah!’ Law Enforcement and the Policing of Race, Class, and Gender in Antebellum Richmond.” Masters Student Colloquium, Department of History & Art History, April, 2008.

Community Talks

“White Supremacy, Monuments, and Memory,” Panel Discussion at the University of Arizona, August 30, 2017.

“Smut! A History of Victorian Erotica and Obscenity,” Jellywink Boutique and Sexuality Research Center, Tucson, AZ, April 26, 2015.

HONORS AND AWARDS

Dissertation Fellow, McNeil Center for Early American Studies, Spring, 2014

Albert M. Greenfield Dissertation Fellow, Library Company of Philadelphia, Fall, 2013

Dean's Freshman Seminar Fellowship, Johns Hopkins University, Fall, 2013 (declined)

Dean's Teaching Fellow, Johns Hopkins University, Fall, 2012

Lord Baltimore Fellow, Maryland Historical Society, 2010-2011

Malcolm H. Lauchheimer Graduate Fellow, Department of History, Johns Hopkins University, 2009-2011

Alexander Butler Prize for best first-year paper by a history graduate student, Johns Hopkins University, 2009

SERVICE AND OUTREACH

Departmental Committees and Service

High School Outreach Committee, Spring 2017-Present

Curriculum Committee, Fall 2016-Present

Phi Alpha Theta Faculty Advisor, Fall 2016-Present

History Department Social Media Manager, Fall 2016-Present

History Department Secretary 2014-2017

University Service

APUSH Quiz Bowl Committee Member and Emcee, Spring 2017-Present

Panel on “White Supremacy, Monuments and Memory” Organizer, August 30, 2017

Faculty Advisory Committee, Institute for LGBT Studies, 2015-2017

External Service

Pacific Coast Branch Award Book Prize Committee, PCBAHA, 2017-2019

Conference Organizer, Front Range Early American Consortium Annual Meeting, 2015

Reviewer, Journal of the Early Republic

Reviewer, New York History

Reviewer, Pennsylvania Magazine of History and Biography

Student Coordinator, Gender History Workshop, Johns Hopkins University, 2012-2013

Invited Speaker, panel on “Archival Resources in the DC Metro Area and Mid-Atlantic Region,” Graduate History Workshop, Johns Hopkins University, 2011-2012

COURSES TAUGHT

HISTORY 160C1: American History to 1877

HIST 301: Introduction to the Study of History

HIST/AFAS 347: The Old South

HIST/PA/SOC 349: History of Crime in America, 1607-Present

HIST 422/522: The Early Republic

HIST/AFAS 436/536: The Civil War and Reconstruction

HIST/GWS 457A: Manhood and Masculinity in the United States