

Internship Application

Students can earn up to six credits and gain real-world skills as a History major. Please email your completed application to Professor Katherine Morrissey, kmorriss@email.arizona.edu or drop it off in her mailbox in the Department of History, Chavez 415. Once received, Dr. Morrissey will email you within one week to discuss the application and to find an internship. Once your internship has been approved, you will be registered for HIST 493 credit. Please note that you can also explore internship opportunities independently.
